

2004 Derby City Classic

Ring Game - 10 Ball

400 spectators sat glued as the Accu-crew captured every nuance. This reviewer couldn't leave his TV, and he knew the outcome!

The winner-take-all matches opened at $300 a game and peaked at a do-or-die $12,400.

So, as you can imagine, the money jockeyed back and forth as each player, unable to play safe, rode the 10-ball in an attempt to get back in the saddle.

Could you leave your seat and miss this dog and pony-up show? I doubt it. Pack a lunch.
